

BUILDING BLOCK VIDEO SERIES, PART 2 OF 4: The Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Rehabilitation

Leverage NC has partnered with the professional team at the NC Department of Natural & Cultural Resources' State Historic Preservation Office to create How-To videos to help guide you through their wealth of resources and get you prepared for that next historic rehabilitation project.

The Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Rehabilitation are professional do's and don'ts for old and historic building work developed by the National Park Service and adopted nationwide as a guide for planning and design of successful building reuse.

In this presentation, Jennifer Cathey explores the origins of the Standards, their use in various regulatory and non-regulatory settings, and applies the Standards to various commercial and residential building projects in order to illustrate their use.

Available April 19 @ 10AM | Go to www.LeverageNC.org to view.

Jennifer Cathey has worked as the western regional restoration specialist for the North Carolina Department of Natural and Cultural Resources since 2006, providing technical advice for building repair, restoration, and rehabilitation, and plan review related to state and historic preservation regulation and historic preservation tax credits.

Jennifer received an undergraduate degree in History and Art History from Virginia Tech, and a graduate degree in Urban Affairs & Public Policy, with a concentration in Historic Preservation, From the University of Delaware

Mark your calendar: May 3 @ 10AM for Building Block Video Series, Part 3 of 4

Leverage NC is a partnership of the NC League of Municipalities, NC Department of Commerce's Main Street & Rural Planning Center, NC Department of Cultural Resources' State Historic Preservation Office and the NC Downtown Development Association. We aspire to build economic development capacity in every town or city across the state.